

At present, there are no laws prescribing a minimum wage in Saudi Arabia. The average wage among the manufacturing workers is approximately twice as much as that in China and less than one-tenth of that in Germany and the United Kingdom. With lower costs of resins and electricity, Rabigh CIP is expected to retain an overall competitiveness.