

The land parcel for industrial location is based on a modular system with a minimum unit of 5,000m². Tenants can, therefore, select their required land area, based on their preferences, in integer multiples of 5,000m². However, this is subject to a flexible zoning system, which will allow manufacturers of similar products to operate in similar environmental conditions.